Digital Inclusion Support

National Organisations

Job Centre Support

Connectivity provider TalkTalk is rolling out a new voucher scheme that gives jobseekers across the UK free access to high-quality broadband. The programme, offered in partnership with the Department for Work and Pensions (DWP), aims to tackle digital exclusion and remove barriers to employment across the UK.

Your work coach will be able to help support you to access further information

Social Tariffs

Internet access at home can be expensive, some broadband providers offer social tariffs – broadband and phone packages at a reduced price for people claiming Universal Credit, Pension Credit as well as some other benefits. Some providers call them ‘essential’ or ‘basic’ broadband.

Visit www.ofcom.org.uk and search social tariffs to find out more.

The Department for Education

The Department For Education offers free qualifications and provides access to free, high-quality provision to equip them with the essential digital skills they need for life and work. To be eligible for full funding under the entitlement:

- Be a UK resident
- Aged 19 and over
- Do not have the essential digital skills required to operate effectively in work and day to day life

Domestic Abuse Services

If you are in immediate danger, call 999 and ask for the police.

If prompted, press 55 to Make Yourself Heard and this will transfer your call to the police. Pressing 55 only works on mobiles and does not allow police to track your location.

Call 999 from a landline

If the operator can only hear background noise and cannot decide whether an emergency service is needed, you will be connected to a police call handler. If you replace the handset, the landline may remain connected for 45 seconds in case you pick up again.

When 999 calls are made from landlines, information about your location should be automatically available to the call handlers to help provide a response.

If you are deaf or can't use a phone

You can register with the emergency SMS. Text REGISTER to 999. You will get a text which tells you what to do next. Do this when it is safe so you can text when you are in danger.
